TAFT IS NAMED

Sherman Is Made His Running Mate for Second Time

Chicago, June 22.—William Howard Taft was renominated for president of the United States by the Republican national convention at 9:25 o'clock tonight. Less than an hour later James Schoolcraft Sherman was renominated for the vice presidency.

Both nominations were made on the first ballot. Senator La Follette's name was the only name presented to the convention for the presidential nomination besides that of Taft. Sherman's was the only name presented for the vice presidency. A motion made to make his nomination unanimous was objected to and a rollcall ordered.

Vote for President.
The vote for the presidential nomination was: Taft, 561; Roosevelt, 107; La Follette, 41; Cummins, 17; Hughes, 2. Present and not voting, 348. Absent, 2.

The vote on the vice presidential nomination was: Sherman, 597; Borah, 21; Merriam, 20; Hadley, 14; Beveridge, 2; Gillette, 1. Absent, 71. Not voting, 352.

The convention adjourned at 10:29 p. m.

Two Exciting Features.
There were two exciting features of the long session, which began at 10 in the morning and continued till nearly midnight.

Two hours before the nomination of Taft the Roosevelt demonstration lasted twenty-five minutes.

The second incident was a near riot in the Massachusetts delegation precipitated by Chairman Root.

When the delegates from the Codfish state, their minds made up to have no hand in the matter, refused to vote when their names were called, Root ordered that the names of the alternates be called.

As soon as this order was issued Delegate Fossick, a gray-haired man who looks like James G. Blaine, arose and shouted:

"Massachusetts is a law-abiding state and you had better not attempt that kind of robbery."

After the yells and cheers that greeted this defiance had subsided, Root strode to the edge of the platform, a court of husky secretaries beside him to prevent trouble, and said:

"If a delegate to this convention refuses to do his duty by casting his vote, his alternate must do it for him. The names of the alternates will be called."

The Massachusetts men were in the exact center of the building, standing on their chairs, shaking their fists, hissing and hurling execrations at the chairman who had retired to his desk. Presently they quieted down and retired. They lost four votes, but they gained one point of more importance.

Chairman Root did not again during the rollcall insist on the call of alternates. Once or twice they were called, but they never voted against their principal's desires.

Vote for Vice President.
The vote for the vice presidential nomination was: Sherman, 597; Borah, 21; Merriam, 20; Hadley, 14; Beveridge, 2; Gillette, 1. Absent, 71. Present, but not voting, 352.

Big Demonstrations Followed.
The presentation of each name earlier in the evening the Roosevelt forces led in a prolonged outburst for their candidate.

Sherman was renominated for vice president in a perfunctory manner.

SPORT

Only the brook, taxes and the reformers runs on forever. The champion fighter has his day, for he is numbered among the mortals. Johnson will have his day like all the champions that have preceded him.

Father Time refuses to play favorites in this respect. His "day" may still be in the far distant future or it may be at hand. Fourth of July. Come it will be as certain as death if he remains in the fighting game. Jack tells about retiring Labor Day next, but you and I know he won't. He's been in the vortex of popularity and hero worship too long to let go without an effort.

Maybe Jim Flynn will force him to retire then again maybe not. Only the future knows what it holds in store for both of the principals engaged in the big scrap on the natal day of our great country.

We've seen Sullivan, Jim Corbett, then Fitzsimmons, then Jeffries, then Tommy Burns, all fall on occasions of this kind. Perhaps Johnson will prove the exception to the rule and upset calculations. We do know that it will prove to be a far better battle than the Jeffries-Johnson fight was two years ago at Reno. Flynn, at any rate, will try; there is nothing coy about him. He is brave and courageous and take it for granted right now that the coxsack of the good ship "Championship" that brings her into port will know he has had a stormy voyage.

Men improve and men deteriorate, so it is for you to figure just how much Flynn has improved—or how much Johnson has deteriorated—if any.

In the last two years. Briefly said this up and that will be your answer on the result of the contest.

"TEX" RICKARD WILL MANAGE BIG RANCH.
New York, June 24.—"Tex" Rickard, the former boxing promoter, has left Chicago for Buenos Ayres to become manager of a big land and cattle company which has just been organized in the United States with a $1,500,000 paid up capital. Rickard has turned his back on politics and the roped arena and says he will devote the next five years to making money. The company has purchased 3,500,000 acres in Paraguay, and will start with 100,000 head of cattle, which will be increased to 500,000 later.

Twenty Texas cowboys, all of whom speak Spanish, will act as foremen for 600 Paraguayans who Rickard says will be the world's greatest cattle ranch.

ATTELL DOES "BACK TO NATURE" STUNTS.
For more than one month now Foxy Abraham, Lincoln Attell, who lost his featherweight crown to Johnny Kilbane on the last anniversary of his "father of our country" has been building himself up in preparation to a "comeback" act by "back to nature" training, and has proven his conscientious work by tipping the scales at 136 pounds. Not superfluous flesh, according to his present manager, Billy Nolan, but Abe has entirely changed from a soft-bellied individual to a real hard-muscled person. Now, when Attell starts to throw himself into the limelight again, it is understood that Abe will be handicapped in trying to win his lost featherweight laurels and will try to win fame and fortune in the lightweight division. Nolan also says that Attell is not through training, but will continue his steady grind until about July 4, on which date the ex-czar will try to feature as 50 per cent of a lightweight match with some good "23" pound battler.

Peet to Coach Oarsmen.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 24.—Announcement was made here yesterday that Dr. Walter Peet, a former Columbia oarsman and coach of the victorious 1895 Columbia varsity eight, had volunteered to assist Captain Seward in coaching the Sanford oarsmen until the regatta Saturday.

The California eight is composed of husky eight and is thought they will improve rapidly under a skilled coach.

POISONED CANDY IS SENT GIRL BY MAIL.
Boise, Ida., June 22.—Lena Speers, 18 years old, lies dead at the home of her brother, Roy, 21, in a room six miles from Rupert, as the result of poisoned candy sent to her through the mail.

Determined to locate the mailer of the package and charge him with the crime of murder, special agents, under the direction of the postoffice department, are following every possible clue and are confident they will be successful. They refuse to discuss the evidence so far uncovered. Postoffice Inspector Neal, with headquarters here, has charge of the case. A Buhl mail and former sweetheart is suspected.

Living on a rural mail route, Miss Speers went to the mail box as was her custom and secured the mail yesterday. She found a package properly addressed to her which the carrier had left, and, opening it, found it was candy. She ate most of the top layer as she walked home. Hearing her on the back porch and noticing something wrong, her sister, Mrs. Benson, found her in convulsions and at once gave the alarm.

Mr. Benson went to the house and, failing to get telephonic connection with Rupert, sent word by the train, but the young woman was dead before the doctor arrived. Olive oil was given to two of Mr. Benson's children who ate a part of the candy, and no bad results were noticed. The box contained a Buhl postmark, and the writing resembled that contained in letters the girl had been getting. It is understood a warrant will be issued for the suspected man. The body will be shipped to Lima, Mont., where the girl's parents live, for burial.

Death Claims Child.
Provo, June 23.—Eleana Smoot, seven years of age, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Smoot, died this morning at the family home on West Center street of abscess on the liver.

Mr. Smoot, the father of the girl, is in the Provo general hospital, where he was operated on a few days ago for appendicitis.

Wind Plays Havoc.
Provo, June 23.—A severe windstorm swept over Provo last night, commencing in the evening about sundown, and blowing a hurricane all night long. Trees were uprooted and telephone and electric light wires torn from their fastenings, and in dozens of places wires are dangling from poles to the ground, with telephones in all parts of the city out of commission. When the wind started it came from the east, gradually veering to the south, then back again from the east.
